

The bucks/hens/birthday Urban Assault is an Amazing Race style event that is specifically designed for private functions. Unlike the many corporate events, Urban Assault will appeal to groups on a tighter budget. The event is all about the friends and family celebrating the special occasion together.

Urban Assault is custom designed and tailored for the buck, hen or birthday person to ensure that the event is memorable and fun, but most importantly special.

Urban Assault will have teams race against the clock around a city / town visiting famous landmarks and locations while completing a variety of fun activities along the way. Each team will be required to decipher clues and puzzles as they navigate their way through the course. As teams race from one location to another, they will have to solve clues and navigate their way around the city using either foot or public transport, making key decisions on the best and quickest route. The aim of the event is to try visit and complete all the checkpoints in the least amount of time.

There is no set course - teams can tackle the Urban Assault course in any order. See who can beat the bucks/hens/birthday person's team by completing all the mandatory checkpoints using the best possible route. The checkpoints are made up of a variety of fun, mental and physical challenges. Some are in the form of taking a photo, finding and collecting items for the buck/hen/birthday person or a fun team based activity. Digital cameras are provided to capture photos of the fun and hilarious day.

As each event is tailored, Uplift Events will work with the organiser to ensure all the important things about the celebration are captured. Whether it involves visiting the bucks/hens/birthday person's favourite locations or bars, or revealing embarrassing moments about them in one of the challenges, most requests can be included into the event*.

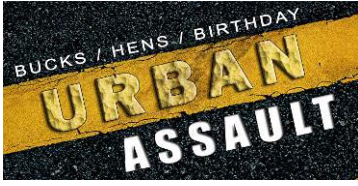

So if you're after a fun and exciting celebration to remember, and have your family and friends talking long after the event, contact Uplift Events for a truly unique buck/hens or birthday celebration.

Urban Assault (Bucks / Hens / Birthdays) Testimonials

"Dear Uplift Events,

Please accept our thanks and gratitude to you and all at Uplift Events who contributed to making Kel's 50th Birthday Amazing Race celebration such a memorable and enjoyable occasion. Your communication during the 'development and preparation stages' was first class and we felt comfortable tailor making our event to suit all our participants with your help and guidance.

Race Day was very exciting, and the format and challenges arranged made for a realistic and competitive 'Amazing Race'. The event length we chose was structured very well by Uplift, and like all great experiences it went extremely quickly.

A professionally arranged and managed event reveals itself when everything runs smoothly on the day, participants talk about it for the following days and weeks, and comments received in writing afterwards are 'Best Day Ever', 'Most Memorable 50th Birthday', 'Can't Wait to Brag About It', 'Truly Special'. This is the event we experienced. We highly recommend Uplift Events and will be spreading the word far and wide! We had a blast!!!

Thanks to Con and the team."

Kel and Fiona – 50th Birthday

"Uplift Events were simply great to work with. Unlike other providers that I contacted, Uplift were willing to customise the race for us to how we wanted it. After doing research on the other providers I also realised that Uplift were easily the best value for money option. The race itself was heaps of fun and every member of the bucks party that I organised was surprised at how enjoyable it was. Definitely recommend Uplift to others."

Daniel – Bucks Day

"Challenges were what we needed, we wanted a relative easy course and they supplied that for us, which was perfect. Staff were excellent, Sasha was really friendly and fun. We had a rowdy crown and she held her own and had fun with them all. Was really able to adapt to what the group needed straight away. Sam was great to work with and really helped bring everything together as well as cater for all our needs. The group had a ball!"

Alicia – Hens and Bucks Day

"Just wanting to thank you for organising such a great day for us on Saturday. Everyone had a great time and all your staff were fantastic. Everyone wants to do it again and we will definitely be in contact for our companies end-of-year event. We have already recommended Uplift to a few different people and a couple of our guests were talking about planning an event."
